Conor Grennan Biography

Conor Grennan is Chief AI Architect at NYU Stern School of Business and CEO of AI Mindset, an AI consulting company that trains organizations on a new and effective framework for generative AI rooted in behavioral shifts.

Conor has worked with teams across industry, including at OpenAI, McKinsey, NASA, Google, PWC, Amazon, Microsoft, ServiceNow, JP Morgan, New York Life, DaVita Healthcare, BlueCross/BlueShield, Blackstone, WelshCarson Private Equity, and more.

He is also a NY Times and #1 international bestselling author, published in 15 languages. He is also a sought-after keynote speaker, serves on the Board of Directors of the SHRM Foundation and has been named a Top Trusted Voice in AI by Edelman.

Conor's AI insights have been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Entrepreneur, Washington Post, BBC, Forbes, Business Insider, Vox, and other media. He co-hosts the AI Applied Podcast (top 20 in Business News) and has over 140k followers on LinkedIn that track his genAI insights.

Outside of his work in AI, Conor has been named a Huffington Post Game Changer of the Year for his humanitarian work with trafficked children in Nepal, and in 2014 was given the Unsung Hero of Compassion Award by His Holiness the Dalai Lama. He has a BA from the University of Virginia and an MBA from NYU Stern, and lives in New Canaan with his wife Liz and his two children.